REQUESTED TO REVOKE LICENSE

Coroner's Juries in Both Zion Cases Make Recommendations to State Board

UNDERTAKER UNDER FIRE

License Dr. La Rose May Be Revoked and May Also Be Punished, is the Commendation of Jury

As the result of two recommendations from two coroner's juries to the same effect, it is believed that the State Board of Health will revoke the license of Dr. J. LaRose of Zion City.

The coroner's inquests to investigate into the deaths of Arthur Reed and Mrs. Cherine Mole, the former who died of blood poisoning following a minor operation on the arm and the latter of burns, completed their work at the Conrad Hart undertaking rooms on Friday night and both verdicts returned to the State Board of Health revoke the doctor's license.

"We the undersigned jurors, sworn to inquire of the death of Arthur Reed, on oath to find that he came to his death of septicemia, resulting from gangrene of the arm on Dec. 7, 1912, at Zion City, Ill.

"That the said Arthur Reed received a cut wound on his forearm on Nov. 7, 1912, and from day to day thereafter until the death of said Arthur Reed, one Dr. N. LaRose at Zion City, in said county, carelessly, negligently and without due care, caution or circumspection, treated said wound and by so doing caused said gangrene and death.

"We, therefore respectfully recommend that the next grand jury of this county investigate the death of said Arthur Reed to determine whether or not said Dr. J. LaRose is subject to punishment under the criminal laws of this state.

"We further recommend that a copy of these proceedings be sent to the State Board of Health to revoke the license of said Dr. N. J. LaRose to practice medicine in this state.

"Without question the foregoing verdict is one of the strongest ever given in Lake county but it did not come as a surprise to those conversant with facts in the case.

State Attorney Dady when asked if he proposed to swear out a warrant for the arrest of Dr. LaRose replied that it was not the verdict of the jury to ask him to act in the matter but rather put the matter up to the next jury to investigate. He said, verily, that if anyone wishes to swear out a warrant for the Zion man that he prosecute the case.

"The taking of evidence was finished after 6 o'clock after which jury adjourned for supper. When they took a vote it was found that there was a unit for the same verdict.

And the testimony given by Miss Mary Paddock of Grass Lake acting as bride's maid and Eddie Forbrick also of Grass Lake acted as best man.

"The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webb who reside east of town, and is an accomplished young lady. The groom is a model young man engaged in the real estate business.

Their many friends are extending congratulations to the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson will make their future home in Chicago.

ELDERS PRAY TWO DAYS

New Agent at Zion City Couldn't Stand It, So He Fled

There is considerable rejoicing in Zion City over the fact that the efficacy of prayer has at last been proved. The new agent in the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railroad office in Zion City, it is claimed was the victim. For two days he stood the gaff and finally had to beat a retreat. It is said that he resigned his position Thursday afternoon of last week.

For six years the station agent at Zion City has been E. L. Brown. Recently Brown got mixed up in a fight as a result of which he was arrested. He proved his innocence, however, and was acquitted. But the company did not seem satisfied and finally asked him to resign.

He did so and the new agent, a young man from Highland Park took his place on Tuesday morning.

Brown had been a member of Voliva's following and the elders of the church did not take very kindly to his removal. They determined to make it just as unpleasant as possible for his successor.

Several of them descended upon the office. They carried no clubs or firearms, their only weapons being Bibles. As they solemnly filed into the depot the new operator wondered what was up. He was not kept long in doubt.

Setting to their knees the elders began to pray. They extolled the virtues of Brown and prayed that his successor should be removed from the position, loud and long did the pray. The praying went on in relays and as fast as one set of elders became breathless another set who had been waiting with steam up, started in.

At first the new agent took it as more or less of a joke, but after awhile it began to wear on his nerves. When the same practice was started on last Thursday the agent decided that it was too much of a good thing and then according to all accounts, waited until afternoon and resigned his job. Unlike the employees of the Cook plant he couldn't stand to be made the butt of such insistent praying.

WAUKEGAN IS AGAIN SECOND; LOST OUT ON MOOSE PROJECT

Lake county lost out in its desire to be chosen as a site for the new million and a half dollar headquarters and home for the Loyal Order of Moose. Aurora is the fortunate city to win this coveted institution.

The Elgin News says of the location of the home near Aurora:

Location of the national headquarters of a home of the Loyal Order of Moose in Kane county was called the county's greatest project. Following are some of the things involved:

Expenditure of $1,500,000.

Purchase of tract of 1,000 acres of the county's finest land.

Erection and operation of industrial school and agricultural college.

Building and maintenance of home for aged and dependent members.

Technically, the securing of this object is Aurora's triumph and Elgin's loss, but the land is all located in Batavia township, according to Banker Wm. George of Aurora, it is too big a proposition for any one city, it belongs to the county.

MARIE WEBB AND JOS. CLARKSON MARRIED SATURDAY

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Rev. Father Lynch on Saturday, Dec. 21, the contracting parties being Miss Marie Webb of Antioch and Joseph S. Clarkson of Chicago. Miss Mary Paddock of Grass Lake acting as bride's maid and Eddie Forbrick also of Grass Lake acted as best man.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webb who reside east of town, and is an accomplished young lady. The groom is a model young man engaged in the real estate business.

Their many friends are extending congratulations to the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson will make their future home in Chicago.

Had to Be Done.
"You cannot burn the candle at both ends," said the young wife, remonstrating with her hard-working literary husband. "I'm afraid, my dear," was the reply. "It is the only way to make both ends meet."

Terrible, indeed.
"Those bridge disasters are terrible," remarked the man who was reading of bridges being swept away by the river floods. "I should say so," replied his friend. "My wife lost all of her year's pin money in a game of bridge last night."

DIES OF HEART VOLIVA FAILURE IN BATH TUB IS FACING REBELLION

Geo. Meyer, Son of Prominent Wauconda Farmer, Found
Dead in Tub

ON HIS 23rd BIRTHDAY

Was a Bookkeeper for the Besley Brewery Company; Was in Bath Tub
Over Three Hours

George Meyer, employed as bookkeeper at Besley's Waukegan Brewing company, Waukegan, was found dead in a bath tub at the Andrew Wagner home, 330 South Park avenue, Waukegan, Sunday morning.

Death was not caused by drowning. The young man was sitting erect, his head hanging over the rear end of the tub, when found by Andrew Wagner, with whom he was boarding.

Meyer ate his breakfast at 9 o'clock. When he left the dining table he told Mrs. Wagner that he was going to the basement to take his bath. "I forgot to take my bath last night," said he.

Before leaving home for the German Catholic church, Mrs. Wagner went to the head of the stairs leading to the basement and shouted, "George lock the door if you leave the house."

The young man made no response. Mrs. Wagner heard a gurgling sound quite similar to those made by a person washing their face. She was satisfied that he had heard her request, so left for church.

Returning from church at 11:45 Mr. Wagner went into the basement to fix the fire in the furnace. Noticing that the bath room door was closed, he went over and opened it.

There, stretched out at full length, lay his friend of the three years, his eyes closed in death. The water in the tub was still hot.

Mr. Wagner rushed to the telephone and informed the police of the death of George Meyer. Edward Conrad, deputy coroner, in response to a call went to the Wagner home.

"That he died of heart failure there is no doubt in my mind," said Mr. Conrad after an examination of the young man's body. "I believe he got into the tub when the water was boiling hot. He could not get out of the water. This shock resulting in heart failure," said Mr. Conrad.

The young man died on the anniversary of his birth. He was twenty-three years old Sunday. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. August H. Meyer, who live near Wauconda.

METHODIST CHURCH WISHES FOR A PIPE ORGAN

Rev. Stixrud has for some little time been formulating a plan by which the M. E. church at this place might boast of the possession of a pipe organ, and with this object in mind has been communicating with Mr. Andrew Carnegie, asking for a donation of $800, proposing to raise a like amount among the citizens of the community. About ten days ago his letter asking the donation, was mailed and this week an answer was received from Mr. Carnegie's secretary, containing a list of questions in regard to the matter. The Official Board will consider the matter at their meeting in January.

Well Answered.
When he once asked a London class of girls, added Dr. Macnamara, what they would say if he told them he saw the sun rise in the west, he got the reply that it was impossible. "But," he persevered, "supposing I still declared I had seen the sun rise in the west?" "Well," one of the girls at length replied, "I should think you must have got up rather late."

One Who Has Renounced Him
Claims That This Condition Now Exists

TIRES OF PROPHETIC CLAIM

Sensational Charges That Another Man
Recently Died of Blood Poison Will Be Investigated

That a rebellion is brewing in Zion City and that a large number of Wilbur Glenn Voliva's followers are on the point of deserting him because they believe his claims of being a prophet with superhuman power is all-buncombe, is the statement by one who claims to have been one of Voliva's dupes for a long time and who still, to all appearances, belongs to his following, but who has become tired of the whole affair.

This writer makes many startling charges, one being that a Mr. Mitz, an elderly man who lived near the Arthur Reed home, according to current reports in Zion City, died of blood poisoning after one of his feet had all but rotted off. That he suffered untold pain is borne out by the fact, that his screams could be heard by people passing in the street. According to the report he was not given medical attention, implicit faith being placed in the efficacy of prayer.

The case of Mrs. Sweeney also is recalled in the letter, as are other cases that have happened in Zion.

The following extracts from the letter show that Voliva's people are beginning to awaken and may demand that they be given a little consideration:

These poor innocents are afraid to ask for a doctor. Mr. Voliva teaches them that doctors are the servants of the devil and many are afraid they would be lost if they had a doctor and died. Voliva makes them believe he is sent of God to do this work and if they do not stick to him they will be destroyed and many believe.

Just to think that a prophet of God has to have $150 a month to live on and lots of his poor dupes get from $30 to $50 a month and pay their tithes and offerings out of it. Its time people were getting their eyes open.

Mr. Voliva claims his prayers are answered. He prayed for Arthur Reed, the poor boy—he died; he prayed for Mrs. Mole, and the poor little woman died; he prayed for Mr. Mitz and he died; he prayed for Mrs. Ethel Sweeney and she died. If he is a prophet, why are not his prayers answered? If the dead in Mt. Olive cemetery would arise and talk they could tell an awful story. There is just one head to all this slavery and suffering—and that is Mr. Voliva.

Voliva and all his people prayed for these poor, suffering people, and yet they died, a horrible lingering death. Mr. Voliva makes us people believe that the law can do nothing with him because he is the prophet of God and lots of them believe it but many of us have got our eyes open and are looking to the county authorities to do something. Incidentally the writer compliments the Sun for the stand it has taken in baring all the horrible details of the horrible details of the shameful neglect which led to deaths of Mr. Reed and Mrs. Mole. Still more revelations are promised for the near future.

The charge that Mr. Mitz met a fate nearly identical with that of Arthur Reed may cause the authorities of the county to conduct an investigation and possibly to have the body exhumed so that a more thorough investigation may be made. If the facts are true Dr. LaRose may be compelled to tell why a coroner's inquest was not held. At this time when the other deaths are being investigated it would not be out of place to take up a few more and sift them to the bottom.

Relic of Interest to Sentimen.
A razor which belonged to "Bob-bie" Burns was sold in London the other day. It had a bone handle bearing silver plates giving its pedigree. "The last razor that Robert Burns ever shaved with." Each successive owner since it was presented by Robert Burns, Jr. to William Dunbar, in 1839, has added a plate indicating the purchase.

MRS. JANET THAYER DEAD

Was One of Antioch's Oldest Residents; Had Lived Here Many Years

Mrs. Janet Thayer, one of the oldest residents of our village passed into the Great Beyond on Sunday of this week, at the hour of one o'clock. The deceased had reached the advanced age of 91 years, 3 months and 12 days. Although considered quite smart for one of her years, she has been noticeably failing for sometime, but when her final illness came it was of only one week's duration.

Janet Strang was born Sept. 10, 1821, at Glasgow, Scotland, and came to this country with her parents when fifteen years of age and settled at Millburn, Ill. On the fourteenth day of September, 1845, she was united in marriage to William Emerson Thayer, also of Millburn, and to this union five children were born, three of whom, Mrs. Geo. Webb and John Thayer of Antioch and Parnell M. Thayer of Highland Park, still survive to mourn the loss of a devoted mother. Her husband passed away nineteen years ago. Mrs. Thayer was the last of a family of ten children. Mrs. Thayer was a sister of the late Mrs. Jane McAlister, who founded the McAlister hospital at Waukegan.

For seventy-six years her home has been within the boundaries of Lake County, in her younger years upon a farm near Millburn and for the last eighteen years in this village.

The funeral services are held today (Thursday) at 11 o'clock at the home and 1 o'clock at the Millburn church. Interment will be in the Millburn cemetery.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

Joseph Petter, Employed at Swift's Ice House at Lake Villa, Dies Suddenly

Joseph Petter, an employee at Swift's ice house at Lake Villa for the past seven or eight years passed away some time Wednesday afternoon, the exact time being unknown. On account of his having previously expressed a desire to be left alone if sleeping at dinner time on a holiday, his room mates did not awaken him at noon when they went to dinner, but left him sleeping and breathing heavily. Upon entering the room later they noticed him still sleeping and again left. But when one of his companions entered the room about five o'clock he noticed a change in the sleeper, and upon investigation found that he was dead.

The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Wm. Hanecek of this village and the body was brought at once to the Hancock home.

Petter was born at Longbennington, England, and was 62 years of age. He was unmarried and had been in this country about 20 years. The inquest will be held on Friday and the funeral services will be held at the Hancock home Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

MISS FANNIE DENICK AND ERNEST MILLETT MARRIED THURSDAY

A quiet home wedding took place at the home of Miss Ida Rogers Wednesday afternoon at 2 two o'clock when her niece Miss Fannie Denick became the bride of Ernest L. Millett of Ottumwa, Iowa. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate family and closest friends, Miss Olga Lovegreen acted as bridesmaid and Chas. Lux served as best man. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion and the bride was attired in white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. Rev. Lowrie pastor of the Lake Villa M. E. church spoke the impressive words that made them man and wife.

Miss Denick for the past few years has been employed at Williams Bros. store, is a popular young lady and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances who join with the News in extending to her best wishes for a happy voyage on the matrimonial sea.

Mr. Millett is quite well known in this village, his business as a traveling salesman in the employ of Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett and company having brought him here on many different occasions.

Where they will make their future home is as yet undecided, but upon returning from their wedding trip to Port Huron, Mich., they will reside in Antioch for the winter.

FRAUD CHARGES ARE MADE

Attorney Field for Russian
Consul, in County Court,
Makes Sensational Claims

ASKS JUDGE TO RESCIND

Wishes a Previous Action Rendered Rescinded on Grounds That Swayer was Imposed Upon

Hon. Victor Chickline, Imperial Consul to the United States from Russia, Monday, through his special attorney George W. Field, of Waukegan filed a petition in the County Court asking Judge Persons to revoke the letters of administration granted to James L. Swayer, upon petitions of Attorneys Rockhold & Busch of Chicago; in the estates of five Russian, who lost their lives in the explosion and subsequent fire at the "starch house" on the 25th day of November.

James L. Swayer was granted letters of administration upon petition of the law firm of Rockhold & Busch in the estate of Alex Oblick, John Kiprechuk, Chas. Tomalis, Joseph Kowalki, John Gerulis and Anton Ozizanski.

The petitions were filed with County Clerk Hendee at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

In an interview Attorney Fields made the statement which was reiterated to Judge Persons:

"The law firm of Rockhold & Busch had no legal right to petition the court to issue letters of administration in the cases of the six Russians who lost their lives at the Corn Products Refining company plant. Hon. Victor Chickline Imperial Consul from Russia, is the man who should have filed the petitions and the court should have accepted his advice in appointing an administrator.

We do not object to Mr. James L. Swayer as administrator of the estates, but we do object to the action taken by the Chicago law firm," said he.

After hearing Mr. Field at length, Judge Persons held that the petition for the administrator to administer estate should stand, adding that the latter officer had been imposed upon the petitioner, Charles Whitcomb was not the court's fault.

In the petition and verbally, Field declared that Whitcomb Rockhold & Busch had come here Dec. 2, a few days after the men and representing to Mr. Swayer that they represented the Russian consuls and had induced him to ask to have papers issued which was done. Mr. Runyan for Mr. Swayer, declared the men had seals of the consuls (dated back when consul admits Rockhold was vice consul) and like Mr. Field, declares misrepresentation was practiced on Mr. Swayer.

Relle of Spanish Armada.
An anchor of the Spanish armada period, recovered from the Wallett, a well-known "watchdog," three miles off Clacton, England, has been presented to Colchester (Essex) Museum. For generations this anchor has been an enemy to the trawls of local fishermen, but at length one of the flukes became worn partially away, and the last trawl that struck it thus lifted it from the ground.

Simplify the Problem of Living.
I do believe in simplicity. It is astonishing as well as sad, how many trivial affairs even the wisest man thinks he must attend to in a day; how singular an affair he thinks he must omit. When the mathematician would solve a difficult problem, he first frees the equation of all incumbrances, and reduces it to its simplest terms. So simplify the problem of life, distinguish the necessary and the real—Thoroua Lettore.

MELLEN IS INDICTED

PRESIDENT CHAMBERLIN AND A. W. SMITHERS OF GRAND TRUNK ALSO NAMED.

TRUST LAW VIOLATED, CHARGE

Monopoly Agreement Between New Haven and the Canadian System in New England Is Alleged by U. S. Inspectors.

New York, Dec. 26.—Charles S. Mellen, president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railway, and by virtue of that office, head of all New England's transportation facilities, was indicted here Monday by the federal grand jury under the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Indictments were also returned against Edson J. Chamberlin, president of the Grand Trunk railroad, and Alfred M. Smithers of London, chairman of the Grand Trunk board of directors.

All three defendants are charged with conspiring to monopolize and restrain interstate and foreign commerce. The indictment is not based upon the proposed new traffic and trucking agreement between the New Haven and Grand Trunk, a copy of which was turned over to Attorney General Wickham by President Chamberlin with the information that in that document was contained the sole ground upon which the government thought it could proceed against the two roads under the Sherman law. Instead it is based upon secret documentary evidence obtained from the office files of both corporations by representatives of the department of justice.

These documents show that so long ago as last August the chief executive heads of the two roads had begun to conspire to bring about a hard and fast working arrangement whereby the Canadian corporation would completely withdraw from New England and leave the Mellen-Morgan monopoly in absolute enjoyment of that rich field.

Neither President Mellen nor President Chamberlin, the former being in New Haven and the latter in this city, would make any comment upon the grand jury's action when news of it was conveyed to them by reporters.

No such high ranking or powerful railroad officials have ever before been called upon to face a criminal charge for violating the Sherman anti-trust law. The penalty, if they guilt is established before a trial jury or if they should plead guilty to thus avoid trial, is a maximum fine of $5,000 or one year imprisonment or both fine and imprisonment.

VICEROY OF INDIA WOUNDED

Bomb Hurled at Baron Hardinge as He Enters New Capital—Native Attendant Is Killed.

Delhi, India, Dec. 26.—The viceroy and viceroyess of India, Baron and Baroness Hardinge, escaped assassination as if by a miracle here Monday at the hands of a native fanatic when making their ceremonial entry into Delhi, the new imperial capital of India.

Three splinters of the powerful bomb, which killed one native attendant and injured another, penetrated the back and shoulders of the viceroy, and he was also wounded in the neck by the screws with which the bomb was filled and which passed through his helmet.

The doctors who removed the metal splinters from the wounds declared it marvelous that the viceroy escaped fatal injuries. Lady Hardinge was seriously shaken up.

The elephant on which they were riding halted, and the viceroy tried to stand up, but reeled and fainted, and the officials who gathered around him had much difficulty in removing him from the elephant's back. The howdah in which he and Lady Hardinge had been seated was blown into matchwood. The umbrella bearer, who was killed, acted in the same capacity for Lord Curzon. The bomb thrower had not been caught. A reward of 10,000 rupees (approximately $3,300) has been offered for his arrest.

The viceroy was making entry in state into Delhi as the last of the ceremonies in connection with the transfer of the capital from Calcutta to Delhi. The splendid elephant procession had just left the railway station, passing through Chandni Chowk, when the bomb was thrown.

The ceremonies were interrupted for only a short period while the viceroy and viceroyess were being conveyed to the hospital and viceregal residence respectively.

THIRD MESSAGE IS IN

TAFT REVIEWS WORK OF THREE DEPARTMENTS IN DOCUMENT.

Declares Last Motion in Machinery of Government Due to Lack of Co-Operation.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Work in the post office, interior and commerce and labor departments and affairs in the District of Columbia were reviewed in a special message, the third since the short session of congress began, was submitted to the two houses by President Taft on Thursday.

Transcending in interest what the president has to say about the work of the departments mentioned, in his direct recommendation to a sort of departmental should be given seats on the floor of congress.

On this matter the president says: "I recommend the adoption of legislation which shall make it the duty of heads of departments, the members of the president's cabinet, at convenient times to attend the sessions of the house and the senate, which shall provide seats for them in each house, and give them the opportunity to take part in all discussions and to answer questions of which they have had due notice. The rigid holding apart of the executive and the legislative branches of this government has not worked for the great advantage of either. There has been much lost motion in the machinery due to the lack of co-operation and interchange of views face to face between the representatives of the executive and the members of the two legislative branches of government.

In the departmental section of his message President Taft speaks of the recent placing of 36,000 postmasters on a civil service basis and says that nothing could be further from the truth than the charge that the change was made for political purposes.

The president recommends revision of the land laws so that the interior department can work to the ends of proper conservation of the natural resources of the country.

"The trust question in the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law is gradually solving itself, is maintaining the principle and restoring the practice of competition, and if the law is quietly but firmly enforced, business will adjust itself to the statutory requirements, and unrest in commercial circles provoked by the trust dissension will disappear.

In writing of the work of the agricultural department the president discusses "agricultural credits." He says: "The secretary of agriculture has made an investigation into the matter of credits in this country, and I command a consideration of the information which through his agents he has been able to collect. It does not in any way minimize the importance of the proposal, but it gives more accurate information upon some of the phases of the question than we have heretofore had."

CRISIS IN PEACE MEET

Allies Seek to Force Turks to Definite Decision—Fighting May Be Resumed.

London, Dec. 21.—Hopeful for peace, but ready to fight, the envoys of the Balkan allies went to St. James palace, determined to force the Turks to a definite decision.

The question of the resumption of hostilities now rests on the Turkish demand for permission to revictualize Adrianople. If the Turks refuse to alter this demand the peace negotiations probably will not reach consideration of the surrender of the fortress. The allies are united in the stand that the negotiations must continue with conditions within Adrianople as they are at present.

The Balkan delegates will flatly refuse to allow the provisioning of Adrianople, and will declare for war unless the powers offer an acceptable plan of mediation, giving to the allies the privileges and preference which they believe theirs, as due to the victors.

148 KILLED IN THREE MONTHS

3,295 Were Injured by Railroads During April, May and June, According to Report.

Washington, Dec. 21.—According to a bulletin issued by the interstate commerce commission the number of persons killed in train accidents during April, May and June, 1912, was 148. The injured totaled 3,295. Accidents to employees and others due to railroad operations, including industrial accidents, totaled 19,348. Of this number 2,303 persons were killed.

The total number of casualties on steam roads for the year ending June 30, 1912, was 160,123. Of this number 10,635 were killed. This shows an increase of 189 killed and 19,179 in the number injured, compared with the previous year. For the three months, April to June inclusive, there were 8,215.

NO MONEY TRUST

J. PIERPONT MORGAN DECLARES CONTROL OF CASH IS IMPOSSIBILITY.

ALL BANKS COULD NOT DO IT

Like Competition, but Admits Combination Gives Him More Pleasure—His Deposits Are $100,000,000—Names Steel Directors.

Washington, Dec. 21.—J. Pierpont Morgan before the house money trust investigating committee Thursday declared "there could be no money trust. All the banks and all the money in Christendom could not control money. The question of control is personal as to money and credit."

The big financier was led up to his answer by the examination of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the committee, who asked Mr. Morgan if "he did not feel his vast power."

Mr. Morgan answered that he did not feel it. Once when the lawyer and the witness got into a discussion of competition and combination, Mr. Morgan said: "I'd rather have combination than competition. I like a little competition, but I like combination better. Control is the important thing. Without it you can't do a thing, but no one man could monopolize money. One man might get control of railroads, or merchandise, but never money and credit."

Mr. Morgan's declaration that there "could be no money trust," emphasized by a vigorous bang with his fist on the arm of his chair, came toward the end of the committee's session, at which the financier testified as to the relations of the house of Morgan with several great corporations.

Mr. Morgan testified that he had approved the prices at which the subsidiaries of the United States Steel corporation were taken into the big corporation. Mr. Untermyer asked if he had not named the board of directors of the steel corporation, but Mr. Morgan only said that he might have "decided who shouldn't go on."

"Can't you give the committee a statement of the deposits of your banking firm in New York as of November 17?" asked Mr. Untermyer. Mr. Morgan approximated it at $100,000,000.

Mr. Morgan produced, in response to a question, copies of the fiscal agreements between J. P. Morgan & Co. and the New York Central and the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad companies. Mr. Morgan said that there were no other such agreements made by his house. He said the firm acted as fiscal agents for other companies "by tacit agreement."

"You are acting for a number of other corporations, are you not, including the United States Steel corporation?" suggested Mr. Untermyer. "Yes, but that is by a resolution of the board of directors of the steel corporation," said Mr. Morgan.

As to other agreements whereby the Morgan house became fiscal agents for corporations, he said they were "by word of mouth or by correspondence."

PROTEST IS FILED

DIRECT ELECTIONS AMENDMENT STRONGLY QUESTIONED BY GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

COMMITTEE MAKES DECISION

Solons See Error in Proposal for Choice of U. S. Senators—Jealous of State's Rights—Constitutional Lawyers Confused by Claim.

Washington, Dec. 24.—Strongly asserting that the course followed was unconstitutional, a protest was filed here Saturday by the legislature of Georgia against the course taken by congress in proposing to the states a constitutional amendment providing for the direct election of United States senators.

The Georgia claim brought confusion on the constitutional lawyers in congress. Of more importance is the fact that the adoption of a reform demanded by the people will be further delayed.

Article 5 of the Constitution provides that "the congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to the Constitution."

There are 96 members of the senate and 137 members of the house. The senate adopted the proposed amendment by 64 yeas to 24 nays, and seven not voting, one vacancy existing. The house adopted the proposed amendment by a vote of 238 yeas to 39 nays, five responding present when their names were called, 110 not voting, and five vacancies existing. Thus the senate gave the requisite two-thirds majority, while the House did not. The house declared the amendment adopted on the ground that two-thirds of those present and voting approved the amendment.

A joint committee of the legislature of Georgia in an exhaustive report declared that the amendment "did not receive two-thirds of each house, and therefore, was not proposed to the states in the manner pointed out by the Constitution for its own amendment."

The report first declares the view of the committee that the course taken in congress was in derogation of the rights of the states. It then directs the governor to return to the federal legislature the communication with a protest against this violation of rights. It urges that copies of the report be sent to senators and representatives in congress from Georgia and further directs the governor to send copies of the report to the governors of all the other states with the request that they lay the notification before the several legislatures in the hope they will support the Georgia protest.

The report closes with the pledge that Georgia will agree to the direct election of senators provided the amendment is submitted to the states in a "constitutional manner."

Bearing in mind the historic reluctance of the several states to part with any of their reserved powers or to permit any impairment of the sovereignty and independence they had wrested in war from the British crown and so jealously safeguarded in the formation of this government, the report says:

"It seems but a prudent and proper adherence to our just and honorable traditions to consent to no changes in the fundamental law except such as are made in strict conformity to its terms."

22 DIE WHEN GALE HITS SHIP

Five Survivors From Lost Steamer Florence Escape in Small Boat in a Raging Sea.

St. Johns, N. F., Dec. 24.—Twenty-two men out of a crew of 27 of the freighter Florence of the Furness line went down to death when the steamer, which had lost its bearings in a dense fog, was driven ashore off St. John's Friday night. Five of the crew, Second Mate Hedley and four seamen, who took the daring risk of finding a shore landing for the others, escaped death. These five, three of them carrying the other two, dragged themselves into Trepassy, on the desert fishing huts of St. John's Sunday and then came to this city, where the disaster was first reported.

Captain Burr, the British skipper of the Florence, ordered the mate and the four men to sea at two o'clock in the morning, but by that time the tide had swung from ebb to flow and the gale, which had increased during the night, had literally ground the vessel to pieces. When the men finally found a landing place and had climbed to the top of a steep cliff they saw nothing but a mass of wreckage where the boat had gone ashore.

30,000 on a Death Train

Washington, Dec. 24.—Traveling to their death in a special train 30,000 turkeys passed through here Sunday on their way from Tennessee to the tables of Christmas celebrants in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

Four Auto Bandits Take $12,000

New York, Dec. 24.—Four "auto bandits" attacked two paymasters of the Silk Finishing Company of America on the lower West side here Sunday, beat them into unconsciousness and robbed them of $12,000.

$10,000 Theft at Harvard

Boston, Dec. 24.—Harvard students are hunting for a "Raffles" who robbed them of about $10,000 worth of valuables Sunday. The rooms of eight students, including Robert Taft's son of the president, were looted.

PLEASANT TIME IN PERSPECT

Bachelor Brother Now Knows Something of the Duties That Fall to the Young Mother

"I was visiting my married sister in Toledo last week," relate "Buck" Hawes. "She's got a three-year-old kid, and while I am fair-land of children, I am a bachelor in some what set in my ways. I've rather dismanned, therefore, when my sister proposed leaving me in the lurch with the child one afternoon. 'A hen's what she said:

"Don't put yourself to a bit of trouble—he can take care of himself. See that he doesn't climb up to the pantry shelves and keep 'em on him so that he won't get any mischief.' He won't annoy you. Don't let him go down cellar and get that he doesn't get hold of the salt in the library, and he'll amuse himself all right. If he cries, give him candy, and if that doesn't stop him, hit him on your back. But don't let him bother you a bit. I'll be hot in an hour!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

RINGWORM ON CHILD'S FACE

Stratford, Iowa.—Three years ago this winter my seven-year-old had ringworm on the face. First was in small red spots which had rough crust on the top. When they started they looked like little red dots and then they got bigger, about the size of a bird's egg. They had white rough ring around them, and grew continually worse and soon spread over his face and legs. The kid suffered terrible itching and binges, so that he could not sleep nights. He scratched them and they loomed fearful. He was cross when he hit them. We used several bottles of ointment, but nothing helped.

"I saw where a child had rash on the face and was cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I decided to use them. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment about one month, and they cured my child completely." (Signed) Mrs. Barbara Prim, Jan. 30, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston." Adv.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Happy New Year!
Ask Robert W. if camphor gum is a good substitute for candy.
A good name in man and woman, dear my Lord,
Is the immediate jewel of their soul;
Who steals my purse, steal trash, something, nothing,
'Twas mine, 'tis his and has been to thousands.
But he who filches from me my good name
Takes that which not enriches him
And makes me poor indeed.
(Ask Bertha if she knows the above verse by heart.)
Why was Mary greener than usual last Thursday.
No school this week and none next.
All the teachers have deserted Antioch, but we soon shall see them drifting back here again.
The H. S. room had quite a time deciding whether or not they would exchange gifts. The vote resulted in 25 to 11 to the affirmatives and some did not vote either way.
Such shouts as these still come from the foot ball field: 'Ouch, my skin,' 'kill 'em,' 'go it, Steve.'

Start a roarin' old massacre now.

The Seniors have only three more chapters to finish in Commercial Geography.

Mr. Espey: "All those who have had any conversation since noon learn these seven lines." Aid Hester did.

Useful for Orators.
At a musical exposition in Berlin an invention for increasing the resonance of the voice was exhibited. It consists of a film, which is applied to the roof of the mouth and acts as a sounding board. It is intended for the use of orators, officers, and anyone wishing to increase the reach of the voice, as well as musicians.

Sexual Difference.
A woman is afraid she'll get a chance to be tempted, and a man that he won't.—New York Press.

Sensitive Plant Life.
The craving of plants and trees for water has sometimes led them to terrible extremes. A poplar has been known to burrow beneath a wall, under a road, and down a well—all in search of water, and a pertinacious turnip which got the tip of its root into the crack in a field drain went on and on until it was six feet long in the drain. So sensitive is the tip of the root on the water question that Darwin declared it must have a brain in it.

Good Object Lesson.
The pupils of a Cleveland (Ohio) school have taken part in a dramatic sketch before the moving picture camera, and their youthful figures and the lesson they teach will soon be known throughout the land. For it is a lesson that they are teaching—the lesson of the importance of the care of the teeth.

Method of Bleaching Ivory.
To bleach ivory ornaments or piano keys the following method works well. The ornaments are first washed or "soaked." If possible, in a bath of unslaked lime, which has in it a few ounces of bran and water. This should make a pasty solution if properly mixed, and will bleach the ivory which is discolored or stained. It should be rubbed off with a cloth and the ivory dried in magnesia powder. After a few minutes a few strokes with a cloth gives the ivory a brilliant polish.

"Wise-acre."
"Wise-acre" has its origin in Ben Jonson's retort to a countryman who boasted informally of his acres. All Ben said: "What signify to us your dirt and your clouds? Where you have an acre of land I have ten acres of wit." The countryman retorted by calling Ben "Good Mr. Wise-acre." This is a good story, but perhaps the term wise-acre comes from the corruption of the German, welsager, a wise-sayer.

Remained Long Under Water.
The Paris swimming-master, Poulliquen, accomplished a remarkable feat recently by remaining six minutes twenty seconds under water. His previous best performance was four minutes thirty-one seconds. M. Poulliquen seemed quite fresh after his exploit, and in proof of it jumped into the water again and swam thirty yards at full speed.

Very Many Women.
Continuous self-sacrifice is some women's idea of living a useful life.—Florida Times-Union.

Turquoise a Horse's Stone.
The turquoise is the especial protection of horsemen and averts accidents in general.

Hideous Trousers.
Further, it is pointed out, the trouser leg was draughty and cold, and at the same time drags itself into hideous contortions with every movement of the leg. In the nether garment of celebrities distortions were described suggestive of concertinas, corkacrows, and buckled tubes.—Exchange.

Not Really Serious.
"My cases are all simple ones, such as stealing boxes of matches and handkerchiefs, and bigamy," said a prisoner at Kingston-on-Thames court, after 28 previous convictions had been proved against him.—London Mail.

Everything For The Stable
comfort of the horse may be had here. If you need a halter, a blanket, a curry comb, a brush, a clipper or any other article for the horse's toilet, come here for it. You'll find it as right as can be both for your use and the comfort of the horse.

The Christmas exercises at the M. E. church Tuesday evening, as usual, drew a large and appreciative audience. The program was well arranged and the cantata entitled "The Garden of the Christmas Tree" was a credit to those in charge. A free will offering was taken up for the benefit of the Lake Bluff orphanage and the sum of $3.00 was raised.

The quaint old custom of the night Christmas carol was revived at Antioch for the second time, Wednesday night, Wm. Kelly and v. Ch. and Ernest, and nephew C. O. Wm. Christian, Douglas and two others, made the trip to Antioch, stopping at various homes, singing carols and well trained voices rendered sweet old songs most appropriate to the Yuletide season. Those who were honored by a visit of the "serenaders" and the editor is happy to say he was among the number, thoroughly appreciated the sentiment, and many were the words of praise heard about town the next day. And hopes are expressed in every side that they may all be likewise favored another year.

A number of the friends of Mrs. W. F. Ziegler were entertained at her home Saturday afternoon, at a piano recital given by a portion of her large class of pupils. The program consisted of thirteen numbers, and each one rendered in a manner reflecting credit upon both teacher and pupil. The afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Mary Smith, passed away at her home in Grayslake, Tuesday morning of this week, after an illness of only two days, the cause being pneumonia. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. William Bartlett of this place and was quite well known here by reason of her many visits to this place. The funeral services were held at Grayslake today (Thursday.)

Trusts come increased power and higher wisdom to direct and control it for the help and uplifting of mankind.

The faith sees the life and growth in the color and warmth of spring, in the lengthening days of winter. They perceive that the world of men and women, and of the children, too, though still far from the full tide of its summer, is already well into the long new year of the human family.

They are as certain at the spring for all mankind as they are that January will pass and May will come.

Notice Having sold my business to E. E. Hawkins, I would be pleased to have all those knowing themselves indebted to me to call and settle same at once. I wish to thank all my many patrons for the liberal support given me and recommend my successor as worthy of their support.

This May Be the Reason. "Why is it that so many people keep on getting caught in mining swindles?" "I think it must be because there is always somebody around who is willing to accept money from others who think the more apparent a swindle is the less likely it is to prove what it seems."

New Rules for National Banks on Investments

Comptroller Murray Decides First Month of Investments.

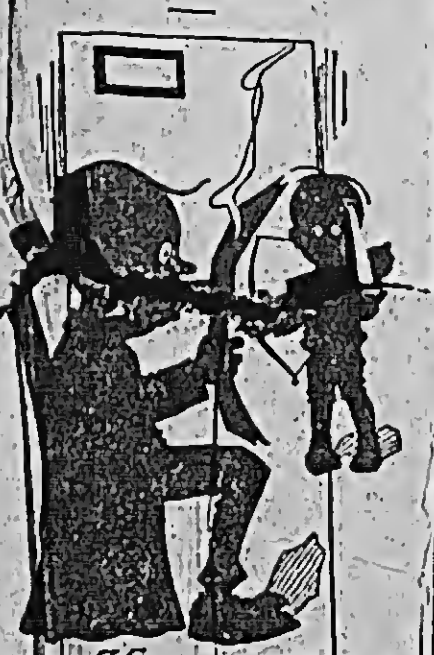

A decision of vital importance to the west, according to Chicago financiers, has been made by Comptroller Murray of the currency in Washington. He has given permission to national banks to invest in bonds of all classes and removed the restriction formerly placed against several types of securities.

First, so-called real estate bonds are now investments for national banks, and these banks could not purchase them before. Such bonds are issued in western cities to finance the construction of large new buildings and building operations in many cities will be greatly benefited by the comptroller's ruling. The type of this class of bonds has led to state banks and insurance companies to purchase them in large amounts and national banks are now permitted to do so.

S. W. Straus, president of S. W. Straus & Co., mortgage and bond broker, Chicago and New York, explained the comptroller's ruling and its bearing on the west.

"From this ruling as one of the most important developments in recent years for the prosperity of the Mississippi valley region," said Mr. Straus, "there are several classes of bonds issued in the west which a long time had been denied the recognition by the eastern national banks. The comptroller's ruling removes this barrier, and will give the western bonds, heretofore a poor second interest, a much wider market in the east and, in fact, all portions of the country than before."

AN EYE TO SPARE

Earl (as he kept on shooting): Why, do you write with one eye?

Merely an Amateur

A man who lives much at home had some odd experiences during the strike in New York hotel.

"On the morning after the strike we called in New York hotel. The managers had hired all applicants for jobs at waiters and the one who took the boldest order was a tough person. He brought the eggs, came over, and cleaned the back of the patrol chair and said:

"Say, do you shuck them eggs yoz?"

In Boston, the waiter at breakfast was a big burly person who seemed unfamiliar with the work. The waiter at breakfast ventured a mild protest. "Aw, ferget it!" said the waiter. "I came up here to be a strike-breaker in the trucking strike."—Saturday Evening Post.

Never Liked Oats

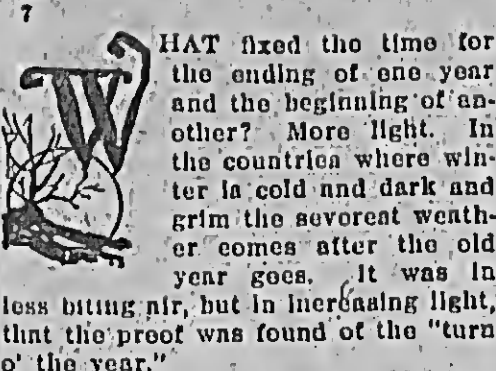

Frenchmen have never liked oat doctors have tried them to try to have political refused.

But one group of Frenchmen could not escape; this was a company of One Hundred and Twenty-eighth Infantry, whose captain insisted that his men should eat oatmeal porridge for a month. He had the oatmeal toasted to improve the taste.

To their surprise, his men found that after a month of manure they did not have a single man on the sick list while other companies had as many as a dozen. They have made up their minds that oats are not so bad, after all.

It's the easiest thing in the world to go from bad to worse.

AT THE YEAR'S END.

WHAT fixed the time for the ending of one year and the beginning of another? More light. In the countries where winter is cold and dark and grim the severest weather comes after the old year goes. It was in loss biting air, but in increasing light, that the proof was found of the "turn of the year."

The dead year is often buried to the verge of winter's most bitter winds. The frost is going deeper, when the season is normal. Nature's sleep is most profound. There is only one sign that the sun has turned and is coming back. That evidence is a little more daylight, a little less of the darkness of night.

But more light is enough. It makes the change a time of joy, of new hopes and more confident turnings to the future. There is the promise of spring in the added light of the day and the promise of growing good and re-creating evil in the coming of the new year.

It means that mankind has another chance for better things. It gives hope of a new foothold and endeavor to a fresh start. The world is invited to turn its back on the mistakes and sins and troubles of the past and look to the ever-wonderful possibilities of the unknown time to come.

There is the charm and joy of New Year's. In that revival of drooping confidence, in that lure of the infinite, lies the appeal of the day which is always greeted with enthusiasm, no matter how many generations have seen the hopes of the year's birth wither before its death. After many failures success may come. Who knows? That is the magic question—"Who knows?" The world gains from year to year in a thousand little things, and sometimes a great evil long endured goes crashing down. Who can say what the limit of triumph may be in the better times to come?

For the world, like every young year, is getting more light. It has more of the sunshine of truth, more of the life-giving rays of knowledge. If they seem cold and sterile, at times, it is because humanity's year is still young. "We are ancients of the earth, and in the morning of the times."

This increasing light of knowledge, this brighter beacon to guide the steps of mankind, must flower and fruit in richer gains than humanity has yet won. It is an accumulating force, like the warmth which the sun gives the earth in spring.

The thinkers and dreamers of the world know that this is so. They are inspired by the consciousness that with growing knowledge there must come increased power and higher wisdom to direct and control it for the help and uplifting of mankind.

The faith sees the life and growth, the color and warmth of spring, in the lengthening days of winter. They perceive that the world of men and women, and of the children, too, though still far from the full tide of its summer, is already well into the long new year of the human family. They are as certain of the spring for all mankind as they are that January will pass and May will come.

It is a mistake to reflect too much upon the past. It has its lessons, but the learning of them should not so absorb our attention as to preclude us from incorporating them into our daily life, transmuting the memory and experience into the gold of useful practicality and ready work that yields results.

Introspection was getting so insistent a habit of the New Year that we are beginning to forget it was but a means to an end—the reflective porch to the large and spacious chamber of lofty resolve and accomplishment. We fancy sometimes that a faint suggestion of maudlin sentimentality crept into the self-analysis, converting what should have proved a stepping stone to higher planes of activity into a more purgatory of self-abnegation ending in a cul-de-sac. We want to make our reflection an avenue that leads through paths of earnest thought to the high tablelands of glorious endeavor and achievement. This soul itself must be utilitarian and not waste itself in unprofitable penance.

What has the year accomplished for womanhood? There has unquestionably been a remarkable renaissance of the feminine. Woman has broadened her outlook, established her claim to wider recognition of her talents, impressed public life with her power for good, and raised her physical and mental scale of the sex. Thank God, among the general advancement there is one that is inspiring reaction—a reversion to the old veneration for the sanctity of motherhood—the holiest and divinest calling of all, a calling involving great sacrifice, great sorrows, but bringing with it, on the other hand, untold compensating joys.

In the medical profession woman has done well, while in the humbler ranks of nursing our efficient hospitals tell their own eloquent tale of the labor done by those who "watch the stars out by the bed of pain."

For the large masses of the girlhood and womanhood the arena of commercial life has widened its doors, and evidence is seen on all hands of the efficiency of the new female recruits to the business ranks. Their presence in this great army of strenuous endeavor will tend to purify and strengthen it, and make it worthier than it has ever been before. The prizes are many, but those who do not gain them must not be discouraged. The very striving after them attunes the fiber. "The athlete matured for the Olympian game gains strength at least for life."

While I have dwelt in this short review of woman's progress on the more expert phases of her career, it must be pointed out that ability is not the be-all and the end-all of woman's existence. It is the great lever that moves things, but another quality is required for the settling down.

Greater than all her accomplishments is her capacity for shedding around her wherever she goes the fragrance of a sweet and beautiful life, and smoothing out the raveled sleeve of care. It is in the belief that she is fully capable of this mission that one looks forward in confidence to the immediate future—a future in which the pulse of vibrant life will throb sympathetically and intellectually to the ultimate benefit of the whole of the community.

word of mouth, truthful. "Ah what a tangled web we weave when first we practice to deceive." A lie seldom travels alone. It weaves a web, in the meshes thereof sooner or later we are humiliated. The truth alone is courageous, and courage is a manly virtue. A lying tongue is the curse of a habit grafted on a cowardly nature. An individual is not honest with himself or honorable in his dealings with his fellow because he is not willing to face the unvarnished fact or bear the brunt and burden which justly is his; a responsibility only made likelier by his cowardly lie whereby he would shift the burden and stand behind the veneer of an assumption or false position. Fear not, the man within you will work out if you will let it so; undisciplined, undisciplined, pressing on, you become conscious that, having done your part, it is due to arrive.

Be not discouraged, fellow wayfarer. Yield to that man within you, whose insatiable longing is the inspiration that shall bring the nobler self to being; the self that now chafes at limitations; that opens the windows through which you see the visions of your undying hope, though distant yet existent, and yours to obtain if you will but hold your straight-way course.

Laugh at Your Burden.

Most of us are bending under the burden of some great load. It may be care, it may be disappointment, it may be injustice, it may be physical pain or spiritual discouragement, but it is heavy. Often it seems heavier than we can bear and we cry out and protest. These burdens are very real, but really they are not half as big and heavy as we make them, declares a writer in the Universalist Leader. We have had them upon our shoulders, entirely out of our sight, so long that they have been magnified by imagination or weariness or impatience, until they seem unbearable. Now, then, whatever your burden may be, however long you have been carrying it, and however proud you may have become of your self-imposed martyrdom just take your burden down and look at it honestly, and you will be surprised how it has dwindled away while you have been magnifying it in your mind. Look at it frankly and fearlessly and in nine cases out of ten will your tears be turned to laughter and your sighing into song.

Most Famous City in History.

The one spot which more than any other has controlled the history of Europe lies, strangely enough, not in Europe itself, but in Asia. For the possession of the site where Christ "suffered, was buried and rose again," more blood has been shed than for any other. An immense number of lives were laid down during the Crusades, and for 600 years before the Crusades, and even to the present time, a constant stream of pilgrims has poured into Jerusalem to worship at the spot made sacred by the crucifixion of Christ. From the fourth century after Christ until 50 years ago this site was generally conceded to be within the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Now two sites dispute the claim of being the actual Golgotha. This latter claimant is known as "Gordon's Calvary," thought to an American, Dr. Harlan P. Beach, of Yale university, is due the actual discovery of it. General Gordon, the hero of Khartoum, having first secured for it general recognition, Christian Herald.

Too Strenuous Plan of Teaching.

"Once upon a time, many years ago," says the Western School Journal, "this editor visited a school in which the teacher in the grammar class tried to illustrate every verb by appropriate actions. Thus the verb run was pictured in a scamp around the schoolroom; the verb strike took form on a boy's back. 'But,' remarked the visitor, 'what are you going to do with the verb lie (to tell an untruth)? You surely wouldn't ask the children to lie, and when the verb howl is in the lesson would you bid them howl?' She had never thought of that, but the absurdity of her method seemed visible to her. We hope so."

"Father, I'm Glad You Smoke Duke's Mixture"

Before we tell you about the boy and his air rifle, we want you to hear about Liggett & Myers Duke's Mixture—the tobacco that thousands of men find "just right" for a pipe—the tobacco that makes "rolling" popular.

Liggett & Myers

Duke's Mixture

This favorite tobacco is fine old Virginia and North Carolina bright leaf that has been thoroughly aged, stemmed—and then granulated. It has the true tobacco taste, for the very simple reason that it is pure tobacco.

Pay what you will—it is impossible to get a purer or more likeable smoke than Duke's Mixture. It is now a Liggett & Myers leader, and is unsurpassed in quality.

In every 5c sack there is one and a half ounces of splendid tobacco—and with each sack you get a book of cigarette papers FREE.

How the Boy Got His Air Rifle

In every sack of the Liggett & Myers Duke's Mixture we now pack a Free Present Coupon. These Coupons are good for all kinds of useful articles—something to please every member of the family. There are skates, sleds, balls and bats, cameras, umbrellas, watches, fountain pens, pipes, opera glasses, etc., etc.

As a special offer, during January and February only, we will send you our new illustrated catalogue of presents. FREE. Just send us your name and address on a postal.

Coupons from Duke's Mixture may be ordered with four from HORSESHOE, GRANGER TWIST, coupons from FOUR ROSES (shown on box), or from PICK, PLUG, CUT, PIEDMONT, CIGARETTES, CLIX CIGARETTES, and other bags or coupons issued by us.

Romantic, indeed.

"You can't imagine how romantic it is where we live! At night when everything is asleep sometimes I hear the nightingale singing in the woods. Then I take my horn and accompany him for hours."—F. Legendo Blacttor.

Exercise.
There may be courtesy, there may be even temper and wit and talent and sparkling conversation; there may be good will, even, and yet the human and divinest faculties pine for exercise.—Thorou.

Sine Qua Non.
Sonny—"Aw, pop, I don't wanter study arithmetic." Pop—"What! A son of mine grow up and not be able to figure up baseball scores and batting averages? Never!"

Her Speaking Silence.
It is the things she leaves undone, the words she leaves unsaid, that a woman says more a thousand times than ever is asked of her.—"The Antagonist," by E. Temple Thurston.

Getting There.
The fellow who gets there doesn't depend so much on inspiration as on perspiration.—Philadelphia Record.

His Attitude Defined.
What is the question which is now placed before society, with the glib assurance which to me is most astonishing? That question is this: Is man an ape or an angel? I am on the side of the angels.—Diarail.

Opposition.
A Blair county barrister recently handed a brief up to the court in which he thus described his two brethren on the other side: "They are like two ghouls in a country graveyard seeking a carcass to devour."—Philadelphia Record.

Legal Repartee.
"And now I mean to handle your witnesses without gloves," said a counsel, whose witnesses had met with rather severe treatment from the other side. "Indeed! That's more than I should like to do with yours," smilingly retorted his learned friend.

Dust Laying in England.
The highway department of the city of Leeds, England, has recently treated portions of a macadam roadway with granular calcium chloride to combat the dust. Solutions of the latter had previously been tried at greater cost and without such satisfactory results. The road is first well swept and two applications of the chloride are made on succeeding evenings of about one-half pound per yard.

Somewhat Ambiguous.
A missionary stationed in a land where the natives were cannibals, wrote for assistance as follows: "Our small force of brethren seems to be unable to cope with the distress which prevails in the dark and nighted land. Please send a few more missionaries."—Sunday Magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy were entertained at the Martin home at Millburn Wednesday.

They dig—he digs—more "coin" must now be dealt

It is so hot a spot—that money seems to melt

Good things come light. That is, some of them do. Others are reasonable as is our boots and shoes. It would be hard to find better goods right—prices right—service the best. You'll be pleased. Why not try to-day?

Romantic, indeed. "You can't imagine how romantic it is where we live! At night when everything is asleep sometimes I hear the nightingale singing in the woods. Then I take my horn and accompany him for hours."—Flegendo Blaetter.

Exercise. There may be courtesy, there may be even temper and wit and talent and sparkling conversation, there may be good will, even, and yet the humanist and divines faculties pine for exercise.—Thorau.

Sine Qua Non.

Sonny—"Aw, pop, I don't want to study arithmetic." Pop—"What! A non of mine grow up and not be able to figure up baseball scores and batting averages? Never!"

Her Speaking Silence.

It is the things she leaves unsaid, that a woman says more a thousand times than ever is asked of her.—"The Antagonist," by E. Temple Thurston.

Getting There.

The fellow who gets there doesn't depend so much on inspiration as on perspiration.—Philadelphia Record.

His Attitude Defined.

What is the question which is now placed before society, with the glib assurance which to me is most astonishing? That question is this: Is man an ape or an angel? I am on the side of the angels.—Disraeli.

When We Put up Our Sign inscribed "high-class sanitary plumbing" it meant exactly what it said. Nickel pipes, marble basin, or porcelain tubs do not of themselves make sanitary plumbing. It is how they are put in that makes for health and comfort. Have us do your plumbing and it will be the real sanitary kind, not a mere trade name for ordinary work.

A Word to the Wise Take Care of Your Eyes

Good Work Done Right

The eye is the most precious thing we have and should be taken care of as such.

Headache, nervousness, dizziness, and nausea often laid to other causes but nine times out of ten they are caused by eyestrain.

I FIT GLASSES RIGHT

I am prepared to remedy any trouble caused by eyestrain and guarantee results.

Kitten in Revolt.

A remarkable case of filial ingratitude on the part of a black kitten has occurred in Liverpool, England. A few days ago a customer threw a piece of meat between them, which was secured by the mother cat. To the surprise of everybody, the kitten sprang at his mother and drove her out of the house. Since then he has mounded guard over the doors to prevent her return, and, although she has attempted times after time to return to her old home, her stern, unbending, and ungrateful son bars the way.

Ocean Denizens.

According to Sir John Murray, one of the greatest authorities on oceanography, the bottom is a desert of pitch-black darkness, penetrating cold, and eternal silence. Worms, sea puddings, and coral polyps sluggishly crawl or sway in the almost currentless depths, and only two species of fish, both of them, with much head and little body, have been found deeper than a mile and a quarter down.

Opposition.

A Blair county barrister recently handed a brief up to the court in which he thus described his two brethren on the other side: "They are like two ghoul in a country graveyard seeking a carcass to devour."—Philadelphia Record.

Legal Repartee.

"And now I mean to handle your witnesses without gloves," said a counsel, whose witnesses had met with rather severe treatment from the other side. "Indeed! That's more than I should like to do with yours," smilingly retorted his learned friend.

Dust Laying in England.

The highway department of the city of Leeds, England, has recently treated portions of a macadam roadway with granular calcium chloride to combat the dust. Solutions of the latter had previously been tried at greater cost and without such satisfactory results. The road is first well swept and two applications of the chloride are made on succeeding evenings of about one-half pound per yard.

Somewhat Ambiguous.

A missionary stationed in a land where the natives were cannibals, wrote for assistance as follows: "Our small force of brethren seems to be unable to cope with the distress which prevails in the dark and bloodied land. Please send a few more missionaries."—Sunday Magazine.

Unconscious Vulgarity.

You can be as vulgar as you like, so long as you know that you are being vulgar; it is when you are vulgar without knowing it that you are socially lost.—"Adam's Orchard," by Sarah Grand.

Mer. Ureao.

There is nothing more painful to an actress than to appear on the stage looking as old as she really is.—"My Autobiography," by Madame Judith.

Explanation.

"Mama said the idea of her mother bringing home a new husband made her tired." "I suppose that is why she would not go a step farther."—Baltimore American.

Purple P.

It's always a pleasure to see a man who doesn't get married, can't be slipping into queer with love to tell him how silly he is. There is no one whom you really love, dislike as a person you love.

Mislead.

Patron—"What took a so long with my eggs?" Walter Parke the delay, sir; but they're laid."—Judge.

And Put Disheer it.

Our only fear of a woman is her president's cabinet is that she will put scalloped paper on his shelves.
